

The Avara Collection features this exquisite linear island chandelier, a sophisticated statement piece that combines natural elements with classic luxury. The fixture is adorned with a stunning array of authentic Capiz shells and shimmering crystal jewels that beautifully catch and diffuse the light. These delicate, organic textures are elegantly supported by a sleek polished nickel frame, providing a radiant and high-end finish. This brilliant design makes it an ideal focal point for an upscale dining room or a modern kitchen island, blending coastal charm with refined elegance. Great for any rectangular table or island area.
