

Designed by Sarah Baeumler, this stunning four-light linear island chandelier from the Velora Collection features a balanced row of rounded white glass shades that emit a soft, organic glow. Each glass globe is elegantly illuminated by an integrated LED source and suspended from a sophisticated frame finished in Legacy Brass. For personalized ambiance, this fixture is 3CCT enabled, allowing you to select your preferred color temperature to perfectly suit your kitchen or dining space. This modern statement piece is also fully dimmable, providing complete control over the lighting intensity for everything from task work to intimate gatherings. Great for an island, bar, or rectangular table.
