

Part of the Nightfall collection by designer Sarah Baeumler, this grand 21-light foyer chandelier creates a dramatic and sophisticated vertical statement. Each light features a unique marble-type glass globe that emits a soft, organic glow, adding a touch of natural texture to your interior. The luminous spheres are elegantly suspended from a minimalist black frame, providing a bold and modern contrast to the artisanal glass. This expansive multi-light fixture is great for an entryway, serving as a luxurious and ethereal focal point that beautifully illuminates larger spaces.
