

From designer Sarah Baeumler, this striking seven-light foyer chandelier from the Nightfall collection creates a beautiful vertical display with its cascading arrangement of luminous globes. Each light features a unique marble-type glass shade that provides a soft, organic texture and an ethereal glow. The artisanal glass elements are elegantly suspended from a minimalist black frame, offering a sharp and sophisticated modern contrast. This compact multi-light fixture is a great addition to a smaller entryway, delivering a luxurious focal point without overwhelming the space.
