

Solara collection 44inch island Graphite

The Solara collection by designer Sarah Baeumler includes this sophisticated linear island fixture that showcases a rhythmic progression of organically shaped glass elements. This design is grounded by a sleek plated graphite canopy and matching end hardware, providing a modern and refined finish. Each glass component emits a warm, ethereal glow, creating a striking visual centerpiece perfect for illuminating a kitchen island or long dining table. Equipped with LED 3CCT technology, the fixture offers integrated versatility by allowing you to adjust the light's color temperature to best suit your interior environment.
