

From designer Sarah Baeumler, the Zara collection features this elegant single pendant that showcases a stunning natural travertine column encased in clear glass. The fixture is anchored by a sleek plated brushed nickel canopy and matching hardware, providing a modern and refined aesthetic. For customized lighting, it includes an integrated LED 3CCT system, allowing you to easily adjust the color temperature to fit your space. This piece beautifully marries raw, organic textures with polished contemporary design to create a sophisticated focal point over a table, bar, or kitchen island.
