

From designer Sarah Baeumler, the Zara collection includes this sophisticated six-light linear island chandelier that creates a rhythmic display of natural textures. Each individual pendant features a natural travertine column encased within a clear glass cylinder for a polished yet organic appearance. The fixture is anchored by a sleek plated brushed nickel canopy and hardware, offering a clean and contemporary finish. Equipped with LED 3CCT technology, this linear island allows you to adjust the color temperature to perfectly complement your kitchen or dining space.
