

Part of the Juna collection by designer Steven Sabados of S&C, this sophisticated single pendant features a column of natural travertine finished in a bold, tactile black. The fixture is anchored by sleek black metalwork, providing a cohesive and modern monochromatic aesthetic. At its core, a white inner glass globe is elegantly encased within a smoke outer glass shade, creating a layered and moody lighting effect. This design masterfully blends raw stone textures with refined glass elements to serve as a luxurious contemporary focal point.
