

Part of the Juna collection by designer Steven Sabados of S&C, this sophisticated four-light linear island chandelier features columns of natural travertine finished in a bold, tactile black. The fixture is anchored by a sleek black linear canopy and matching hardware, providing a cohesive and modern monochromatic aesthetic. At the heart of each pendant, a white inner glass globe is elegantly encased within a smoke outer glass shade, creating a layered and moody lighting effect. This design masterfully blends raw stone textures with refined glass elements to serve as a luxurious contemporary focal point for a kitchen island or dining table.
